SIEMENS INDUSTRY SOFTWARE

PRESENTATION / KNOW-HOW

SIEMENS PLM is a world-leading provider of product lifecycle management (PLM) software. SIEMENS PLM helps thousands of companies make great products by optimizing their lifecycle processes, from planning and development through manufacturing and support.

Whatever their industry, these companies are faced with ever-increasing expectations. SIEMENS PLM industry approach leverages deep industry knowledge gained from working closely with every industries to deliver the specific PLM solutions needed to support the critical decisions that go into their products. These solutions are open, to give the freedom to use and combine whatever tools and information is needed. They're complete, so they add value across the entire product lifecycle.

SIEMENS PLM recognizes that building great products has never been more challenging than it is today. Products are getting more complex, as are the processes to build them. SIEMENS PLM see how complexity is affecting the development process and how the pace of product decision-making is increasing faster than the capacity to absorb information.
