ALMA

PRESENTATION / KNOW-HOW

ALMA is a leading company in the field of CAD/CAM software for sheet-metal working, cutting and robotics, known for over 30 years for its expertise in automatic nesting of complex shapes for cutting, ALMA is well established worldwide.

ALMA offers the most comprehensive range of CAD/CAM software products for cutting, sheet-metal working and mechanized welding: 2D cutting, punching, routing, 5-axis cutting, robotized cutting, tube and profile cutting, folding/unfolding, robotized arc welding, etc.

Since the very beginning, ALMA has been designing innovative solutions to optimize material consumption and machine production capacity. ALMA has contributed to the development of emerging technologies by closely working with machine manufacturers.

From standard machines to the most complex installations, ALMA's CAD/CAM software products fit all production configurations, offer gains that can be immediately measured, and are designed for the comfort of the users.

NEW AND KEY PRODUCTS

In 2013, ALMA launches almaCAM, its new generation CAM software for sheet metal.

almaCAM is a comprehensive system including ALMA's proven CAM software products within a new and thoroughly consistent user environment for data and task management.

almaCAM introduces an innovative CAM approach which provides a "task-oriented" process guiding the user at every stage of machine programming.

almaCAM is a totally open environment capable of interacting with any existing manufacturing company's information system. It is also a platform which promotes the development of complementary applications, such as almaQuote, quotation software for sheet-metal parts.
